DEBTOR'S MOTION TO RETAIN OF INSURANCE PROCEEDS

NOW COMES Debtors, by and through her attorney, William R. Orlow, and in support of her objection states the following:

1. Debtor filed Chapter 13 Bankruptcy on July 27, 2009.
2. Debtor's Chapter 13 Plan was confirmed on December 22, 2009.
3. Debtor converted to Chapter 7 Bankruptcy on or about November 16, 2010.
4. Debtor's home has now become inhabitable due to a mold infestation and water damage.
5. On July 19, 2010, Debtor filed a Motion to Allow her to Retain Insurance Proceeds to Make Repairs (Docket #60). The Bankruptcy Court entered an Order allowing Debtor to Retain said proceeds, with conditions, on August 12, 2010 (Docket #68).
6. However, due to a number of factors, including, but not limited to: a) the length of time from the initial damage to Debtor's residence until Debtor was able to obtain an Order from this Court addressing the insurance proceeds; and b) the further delay subsequent to the Court's August 12, 2010 Order due to administrative issues with the company contracted to make the repairs, the damage to Debtor's residence has progressed to the point where the funds received from Debtor's insurance claim are insufficient to repair the home, and Debtor is without the necessary funds to cure this deficiency.
7. That Debtor has been unable to reside in her residence since the damage to her residence occurred; however, Debtor has continued to pay lot rent of $382.00 per month up until Debtor converted in November 2010.
8. Debtor requests that she be allowed to retain the balance of these insurance proceeds to allow Debtor to get back on her feet, including securing adequate automobile insurance for her vehicle, as well as putting funds towards securing new housing.
9. Prior to filing this Motion, Debtor sought the concurrence of Green Tree Servicing, but was unable to come to a resolution on the matter as of this time.
10. Attached is a Proposed Order

WHEREFORE Debtor prays this Honorable Court grant her motion and grant what further relief this Court deems equitable and just.

Dated: December 22, 2010
